

COUNTY RETIREMENT TIPS

Planning At Any Stage

Have you ever wondered about your County retirement?

What changes are made to my retirement if I get married? What is the difference between refundable and non-refundable retirement? What are all my options for retirement? What can I do to be prepared?

Sierra Orr from the San Bernardino County Employees Retirement Association (SBCERA) will answering all these questions and more during a presentation on topics to include: general retirement, termination of employment, beneficiaries, retirement calculations, choosing a retirement date, and employee options during all stages of employment. Whether you are just starting with the County or a long time employee, this information is for you!

Bring all your questions and prepare for your future!!
